1. Comment: One-time leading German Communist Franz Borkenau claimed in the 23 January 1953 issue of Rheinischer Merkur that the arrest of the doctors indicated the liquidation of the group whom Stalin had used to kill off his adversaries and predicted that Stalin would be murdered. Borkenau interpreted the arrest of the doctors as a Malenkov coutermeasure to Stalin's attempt to overthrow him. In the 13 March issue of Rheinischer Merkur, Borkenau cited Stalin's death as confirmation of this prediction.
